Review: Minna no Nihongo | Japanese Tease

I have studied both the main text and English translation for Minna No Nihongo Shokyu 1&2 for 1st and 2nd editions. After having gone through all these books for both levels, I have found that in the new edition, there are slight differences in the vocab lists in each chapter - words have been moved around, out-dated vocabulary removed etc.

(apply this to all my minna no nihongo books) I'm very glad my university chose 'minna no nihongo' to teach us the beginnings of Japanese. It's clear, gives example sentences in the grammar, uses words you may encounter when you're in the target audience of students or business people, and has these cute little drawings (sometimes silly) to illustrate the point, even when it's already clear.
